E-Bulletin 94 January 2015

Below is information on 2015 Getting Ready Workshops

Getting Ready” is a free workshop run over 2 days (3 hours each day) for people with physical disability. The emphasis of the workshop is goal setting and planning. The aim of the workshop is to develop skills so people with disability are able to become confident in planning for their supports and services as well as individualised funding arrangements. Information is also provided during the workshop relating to useful contacts and resources relating to the National Disability Insurance Scheme. Workshops are limited to up to 10 attendees to be able to maintain a personal focus to the topics that are discussed.
